SEPULCHRE. L.M.

Meditations on the Sepulchre in the garden. John 19:41.

Philip Doddridge, 1755

William Cleary, 18/4/2022

1. The sepulchres, how thick they stand, Halle-Hallelu - jah!
Thru' all the road on either hand. Halle-Hallelu - jah!
And bursting in the starting sight Halle-Hallelu - jah! In ev'ry garden of delight. Halle-Hallelu - jah! -jah!

2. Thither the winding alleys tend; Halle- Hallelu - jah!
There all the flow'ry borders end, Halle- Hallelu - jah!
And forms that charm'd the eye before, Halle-Hallelu - jah! Fragrance and music are no more. Halle-Halleju - jah! -jah!

3. Deep in that damp and silent cell Halle- Hallelu - jah!
My fathers and my brethren dwell; Halle- Hallelu - jah!
Beneath its broad and gloomy shade Halle- Hallelu - jah! My kindred and my friends are laid. Halle-Halleju - jah! -jah!