

York. L.M.

E minor John Aikin, 1795.

Aldous, 2011.

1. While sounds of war are heard a - round, And death and ru - in strew the ground; To Thee we look, on
O bid the hu - man

To Thee we look, on Thee we call, To
O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, O

2. Great God whose pow'ful hand can bind, The rag - ing waves, the fur - ious wind; To Thee we look, on Thee we call,
O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, To

To Thee we look, on Thee we call, To
O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, O

Thee we call, To Thee we look, on Thee we call, The Ma - ster and the Lord of all. all.
tem - pest cease, O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, And hush this madd - 'ning world to peace. peace.

Thee we look, on Thee we call,
bid the hu - man tem - pest cease,

To Thee we look, on Thee we call, The Ma - ster and the Lord of all. all.
O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, And hush this madd - 'ning world to peace. peace.

Thee we look, on Thee we call,
bid the hu - man tem - pest cease,

To Thee we look, on Thee we call, The Ma - ster and the Lord of all. all.
O bid the hu - man tem - pest cease, And hush this madd - 'ning world to peace. peace.

Thee we look, on Thee we call,
bid the hu - man tem - pest cease,