

RELLY'S FAREWELL. C.M.

A Minor James Relly, 1758.

Aldous, 2015.

1. Fare-well, vain world, from thee I cease, Hav-ing sur-vey'd thee round; Thy ho-nour, wealth, thy joy and peace I've now a bub-ble found.

2. Thro' dis-ap-point-ments all my days, I've been by thee op-press'd; Yea, curs'd and cross'd in all the ways, Where o-ther men were blest.

3. No more de-lud-ed by thy smiles, Nor crush'd be-neath thy frown; My Je-sus blasts thy cob-web wiles And gives the glor-ious crown.
