

LAUREL HILL. C.M.

William Bullock, 1854, alt.

Minard W. Wilson, The Young Chorister, 1846
arr. Fynn Titford-Mock, 2012-13

1. Thro' all the hours of day or night, My heart is fill'd with grief; In vain I look a-round for light, In vain I seek re - lief.
2. In vain for friend-ly help I crave, In vain for pi - ty cry; No arm is stretch-ing out to save, No com - for - ter is nigh.
3. As with the gold - en rays of morn, Thy sa-ving health dis-play; And all my grief shall soon be gone, The clouds shall pass a-way.

1. Thro' all the hours of day or night, My heart is fill'd with grief; In vain I look a-round for light, In vain I seek re - lief.
2. In vain for friend-ly help I crave, In vain for pi - ty cry; No arm is stretch-ing out to save, No com - for - ter is nigh.
3. As with the gold - en rays of morn, Thy sa-ving health dis-play; And all my grief shall soon be gone, The clouds shall pass a-way.