

BESIDE THE STILL WATERS. 11s.

Inge Eildert Diekenga (1846-1890)

Fynn Titford-Mock, 2014-2017

1. Be - side the still waters, oh Father, my God, There lead me, there feed me, there show me thy word; There

2. Be - side the still waters, oh bountiful store, I drink from their plenty and thirst never - more; No

3. Be - side the still waters, thy goodness is there, Pro - tects me from danger, pre - serves me from care; For

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top three staves are vocal lines, and the bottom staff is a bass line. The music is in 3/4 time and G minor. The lyrics are: 1. Be - side the still waters, oh Father, my God, There lead me, there feed me, there show me thy word; There 2. Be - side the still waters, oh bountiful store, I drink from their plenty and thirst never - more; No 3. Be - side the still waters, thy goodness is there, Pro - tects me from danger, pre - serves me from care; For give me thy counsel, there grant me thy peace, There make all my sor - rows and wanderings cease.

more am I weary when there I may rest, And feel with thy mer - cy and love I am blest.

pain has no terror and death has no sting, While thou art so near me, my God and my king.

The second system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top three staves are vocal lines, and the bottom staff is a bass line. The music is in 3/4 time and G minor. The lyrics are: give me thy counsel, there grant me thy peace, There make all my sor - rows and wanderings cease. more am I weary when there I may rest, And feel with thy mer - cy and love I am blest. pain has no terror and death has no sting, While thou art so near me, my God and my king.