R. T. Kelley, 2012.

1. If, Lord, in thy fair book of life, My worthless name doth stand And in my heart the law is writ By thine un - err - ing hand;

2. I am se - cure, by grace di - vine, Of crowns a - bove the skies; And on the road from thy rich stores, Shall meet with fresh sup - plies.

3. To thee in sweet me - lo - dious strains, My grate - ful voice I'll raise; But life's too short, my pow'rs too weak, To show forth half thy praise.

The musical score consists of four staves. The first three staves are vocal lines for three different verses, each with its own lyrics. The fourth staff is a bass line. The key signature is G Major (one sharp) and the time signature is 2/2. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with clear lyrics and a steady bass accompaniment.
