"Seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." --Heb. 12:1.

B \flat Major. Isaac Watts, 1709.

R. T. Kelley, 2012.

1. Give us the wings of faith to rise With - in the veil, and see The saints a - bove, how great their joys, How bright their glories be.

2. They marked the foot-steps that He trod, His zeal in-spired their breast, And, following their in - car - nate God, They reached the promised rest.

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top staff is the vocal line, followed by three piano accompaniment staves (treble, alto, and bass clefs). The music is in B-flat major and 3/4 time. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staff.

Once they were mourning here be - low, Their couch was set with tears; They wres-tled hard, as we do now, With sins and doubts and fears.

Our glo-rious Lead-er claims our praise For His own pat-tern giv'n; While the great cloud of witness - es Show the same path to heav'n.

The second system of the musical score consists of four staves, continuing the vocal and piano accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staff.
