

Laodicea. 8s & 7s.

"Be not thou afraid when one is made rich; for when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him." --Ps. 49:16-17.

D Minor. R. T. Kelley, 2012.

R. T. Kelley, 2012.

1. Ev - 'ry per-son, rich or com - mon, With their hopes and vul-gar cares, They, too, loved and then were part-ed; Joys and griefs a - like were theirs.

2. Man - y mindsets, moods, and quar - rels- Not all see things eye to eye. Dif - fer - enc - es not-with-stand-ing, All are mor - tal and must die.

3. Rain shall fall a - like on all men, On the just and the cor-rupt. None es - cape the fi - nal judgment; Death shall all lives in-ter - rupt.

4. When we look back on our life - times, Meas-ure not by hap - pi - ness; But thro' vir - tue, grace, and rev-'rence Shall we find a sur-er rest.