

LIGHTWATER H.M.

A Minor. John Newton, 1778.

Steve Brett, 2016.

1. Sup - port-ed by the word, Though in him-self a worm, The serv-ant of the Lord Can won-drous acts per - form.

2. The Lord is still the same, A mighty shield and tower; And they who trust his name, Are guarded by his power. With-
He
With-out dis-may he
He can the rage of

1. 2.
With-out dis-may he bold-ly treads With-out dis-may he bold-ly treads Wher-e'er the path of du - ty leads.
He can the rage of li-ons tame, He can the rage of li-ons tame, And bear them harm-less through the flame!

With-out dis-may he bold - ly treads Wher-e'er the path of du - ty leads.
He can the rage of li - ons tame, And bear them harm - less through the flame!

out dis-may he bold-ly treads With-out dis-may he bold - ly treads Wher-e'er the path of du - ty leads.
can the rage of li-ons tame, He can the rage of li - ons tame, And bear them harm - less through the flame!

bold-ly treads With-out dis - may he bold-ly treads Wher-e'er the path of du - ty leads.
li-ons tame, He can the rage of li - ons tame, And bear them harm - less through the flame!