

ST CEDD C.P.M.

A Major. Susanna Harrison, 1780.

Steve Brett, 2017.

1. Tell me no more of earthly toys, Of sin-ful mirth and car-nal joys, The things I loved be-fore.

Let
Let

2. Tell me no more of praise and wealth, Of careless ease and bloom-ing health, For they have all their snares. Let me but view my Let me but know my

Let me but view my Saviour's face, And Let me but know my sins for-giv'n, And

1. 2.

Let me but view my Saviour's face, And feel his an - i - mat-ing grace, And I de - sire no more, And I de-sire no more.
Let me but know my sins for-giv'n, And see my name en-rolled in heaven, And I am free from cares, And I am free from cares.

me but view my Saviour's face, And feel his an - i - mat-ing grace, And I de-sire no more, And I de-sire no more.
me but know my sins for-giv'n, And see my name en-rolled in heaven, And I am free from cares, And I am free from cares.

Sav-iour's face, And feel his an - i - mat-ing grace, And I de-sire no more, And I de-sire no more.
sins for - giv'n, And see my name en-rolled in heaven, And I am free from cares, And I am free from cares.

feel his an - i - mat - ing grace, And I de - sire no more, And I de-sire no more.
see my name en-rolled in heaven, And I am free from cares, And I am free from cares.