

OPEN DOOR. 8,8,6D.

James Relly, 1776

"You are... built together spiritually into a dwelling-place for God." - Ephesians 2:22

William Cleary, 27/6/2020

1. The builder whom true wisdom sways, First the founda - tion deep - ly lays, Pre - par'd against each shock. Our

2. Christ in this building is the door; And always o - pen to the poor, Who would approach their God: Nor

3. As windows rang'd ad - mit the light, To chase the hor - rors of the night, En - lighting ev'ry part: So

4. The stone the builders did refuse, Which human wisdom ne'er will choose, Is here the headstone seen: Brought builder, sure of his own plan Found - ed as deep - ly in the Man, on God th'eter - nal rock.

though they're naked need they fear; For Christ is yea; bold - ly draw near, And plead redeem - ing blood.

in our Saviour's lovely face, The Godhead shines in love and grace, To cheer the human heart.

forth with Joy to make all fast; Christ is the first stone and the last; The church is safe be - tween.